Monongalia Arts Center presents...

Electrifying Literature: The 2012 Electronic Literature Organization Media Arts Show

The Electronic Literature Organization (ELO) is the world's premiere organization for the study and celebration of literature as it is written and presented on the computer and over the internet. The 2012 ELO Conference takes place in Morgantown during June and the accompanying Media Arts show features artists from around the world. Come experience the literature of today: interactive, online, mobile, electric, and exciting.
