

#15

Featuring
Native American women poets and Handmade/Homemade,
PLUS poetry by Nin Andrews, fiction by Suzanne Scanlon,
web art and video,
our inaugural REVIEWS section,
a Nonfiction section edited by Suzanne Paola on "The Body Silent," and much more.

B

DRUNKEN BOAT

NOW LIVE AT WWW.DRUNKENBOAT.COM

D R U N K E N   B O A T

Drunken Boat#15, Spring 2012

Featuring folios on Native American women poets curated by Layli Long Soldier and Handmade/Homemade, a collection of homemade and letterpress chapbooks, one-of-a-kind editions, and broadsides, curated by Deborah Poe. Plus, among many other innovative works in multiple genres, the issue includes poetry by Nin Andrews, fiction by Suzanne Scanlon, web art and video by Terri Witek and Cyriaco Lopes, our inaugural Reviews section, and a special Nonfiction section edited by Suzanne Paola on "The Body Silent: nonfiction on illness and the body."

LIVE NOW AT: [drunkenboat.com]

DRUNKEN BOAT#15

Drunken Boat [ISSN#1537-2812] is a 501 (c)(3) non-profit organization.
Please consider making a tax-deductible donation to support the arts online.